Letter No. Iuz.I.C.1066/30-31 dated 26th March 1932
 Commissioner, Shimoga District to the Iuzrai Commissioner

In forwarding herewith the correspondence dealing with Shimoga Sub Division Officer's No. D.F.25/29-30 dated 30-1-31, I have the honor to state that the special duty Amildar, during the course of his inspections of the Iuzrai institutions in the Tirthahalli taluk, inspected Shashanatha Venkataramana devaru temple of Surabalebylu village of the same taluk, found that the temple was a defunct institution and that the building had completely fallen down more than 30 years ago. The stone idol also removed and kept in the adjoining Sadasivadevar temple without any bandhana.

The temple is endowed with the largely dry-cultivated lands both Devadaya -----
 Inar) and Sircar. The Devadaya Inar lands

 166 " 0- 32 3- 0- 0) are reported to be mixed up with -----
 2- 0 6- 8- 0)
 Sircar) Brahmadaiva lands in the Shivarajapur 168 wet 2- 35 4- 0- 0)
 ----- Agrahar khata of Sirapur village.

The Devadaya Inar lands are reported to be given to this institution for worship.

On receipt of the Deputy Amildar's report, the Sub Division Officer declared the institution as defunct and ordered to lease out the lands -- (Inar and Sircar). After the sale Istihar was issued, Sheshanknaik ---- cultivator of S.No.165 executed a lease deed before the Amildar agreeing to pay Rs.8/- only per annum. This was approved by the Sub Division -- officer in his No. I.C.789/29-30 dated 24-12-29. The lease deed was ---- accordingly executed by Sheshanknaik for five years from 1930-31. The -- amount of Rs.8/- has been credited to the General Iuzrai funds.

The other two lands are lying fallow from time immemorial and no one is willing to take them up for cultivation.

Under the above circumstances, the Sub Division Officer recommends that the inar tenure of S.No.166 may be cancelled and that this S. o.s as well as S.No.168 may be sold outright. As S.No.165 has been leased out for 5 years, the Sub Division Officer recommends that it does not seem possible to interfere with the lease once made.

I agree with the Sub Division Officer and recommend that his --- proposals ~~may~~ may be approved. The sale amount of the 2 S.Nos.166

May be credited to the General Luzrai funds.
